A. K. Macomber's Renowned Coit Gallops All the Way in Feature at Aqueduct.

A K. Macomber's War Cloud, which early in the year was considered the best hree-year-old in America, ran off with the Ros'yn Handicap, the feature event at the Aqueduct track yesterday afterneon. The big son of Polymelus and Dreamy was at his best and made Kashmir. Papp and Matinee Idol look like the cheapest kind of selling platers. War Cloud was cirtually thrown into the event. Although he has defeated the best of his age in some of the richest stakes of the season he was asked to carry only 122 pounds. With this light weight on his back and Johnny Loftus to guide him he never left the result in Leftus held him off the pace for a half mile and then gave him his head. War Cloud sprang to the front in a few strides and the race was over so far as the winner was concerned. Without be ing urged to do his best he sped from his opponents and won pulled up by four lengths. Kashmir finished second and Papp was third. War Cloud gal-joped over the one mile and a sixteenth all ages, Hollister romped away from a big field of high class sprinters. He carried 134 pounds and won with plenty of speed in roserve. Loftus held him in second place while High Cost set a terrific pace. At the final eighth pole when High Cost had spent his speed the noted jockey gave his charge a touch of the whip. Hollister speed to the front and passed the judges a length and a half in front of Wise Man, which came with a rush in the last sixteenth and nipped Arnold on the post for second honors. Handling the Ball.

Special Despatch to TRE SUN.

WILLIAMSTOWN, Sept. 24.—Football practice at Williams got under way today. A squad of forty men reported on Weston Field. This number will be substantially increased in a few days. The work was very light, consisting chiefly of handling the ball and starting.

The candidates were under the charge of Capt. Ben Boynton, who directed the practice. Bonnar, end, and Feiser, guard, are the only other members of last year's undefeated eleven who are available at present. McLean of the freshman team of a season ago, is considered a sure man in the Purple backfield. Special Despatch to Tax Sun.

This command was organized in the fall of 1961 and left Louisiana by steamer in October. It sailed up the Mississippi River to Memphis, where it landed and marched to Bowling Green or Russellville, Ky. In February, 1862. It was ordered to support Fort Donaldson on the Cumberland River. Grant took the fort, however, before it arrived and the company bivouacked on the old fair grounds at Clarksville, Tenn. At that time a soldier in the com had a bay mare that was heavy with foal. He traded her to a blacksmith who lived near the fair grounds. This mare foaled a black colt which was purchased as a three year old by Col. Sam Johnson. He called him Creole and used blue as a saddle borse. This horse wired him as a saddle horse. This horse stred Dixie, which in time became the prop-erty of Dr. Greenfield of Guthrie, Ky. FORTY MEN OUT FOR BEHR ADVANCES ON HIGH LIGHTS AND SHADOWS DIRECTUM J. SCORES GREAT LAKES NINE BEATS NORFOLK TEAM IN ALL SPHERES OF SPORT

By DANIEL.

S an argument against holding big boxing attractions in a bandbox ball park, without adequate police arrangements and usher service, the Leonard-Lewis affair in Newark on Monday night possessed incontrovertible qualities. Ninety-nine per cent. of those who made the arduous, dusty and odoriferous trip from New York took an oath that "never again" would they venture on another such voyage of discovery. Allen Behr of the New York Tennis Discovery it was for many, for they found that big fights usually prove Club reached the semi-final round in the bloomers, that they usually are not worth the trouble, let alone the fancy prices exacted, and that in almost all such affairs it is the public that loses the decision.

As a sparring exhibition the bout had some commendable but as an out and out fight between two champions it was a fizzle. Perhaps was because each was so clever, and each knew that the other carried Her, who had sailed through the first a knockout. Lewis tried hard enough for three rounds, and then got a thee rounds without difficulty, proved no match for Behr and was outplayed in all departments of the game.

Several 'highly exciting third round matches were played. The best of them was the one in which Elliott Binzen defeated Ingo Hartman. The volgran surface of the provided in the control of the provided in the control of the contr

All the Decisions Were Correct.

Some of the ringsiders gave the fight to Lewis, some called it a draw and others thought Leonard had won, with the majority in favor of Leonard. All decisions were right, While Leonard did not score as his friends desired he demonstrated that in a fight to a referee's decision, no matter what the distance, the welterweight championship would

Lewis proved a clever fighter and his left handed defence worried Leonard for a good while. Lewis did most of the forcing, but he got in few hard knocks and showed that he could not penetrate Leonard's defence. The lightweight champion was as quick as a cat and time and again jus did manage to leap away from a dangerous swing or a wicked uppercut. But always there was the feeling that if Leonard chose to cut loose Lewis would be forced to run a very peor second

In summarization here are some of the things we saw at Wieden One poor fight; one decision against the public; several policemen and

New York Athletic Club's Fiftieth Anniversary.

Next Monday night at the Astor the New York Athletic Club will hold its fiftieth anniversary banquet. Next Saturday afternoon at Travers Island the club will stage a big set of anniversary games, at which will be featured a two mile Liberty Loan handicap. Matt Halpin reports that the banquet will be one of the biggest affairs of its kind yet held in this country. Men high in every walk of life will be there to do honor to the club that ever has been foremost in fostering the highest ideals in sport in bringing athletics to the remarkable place attained in America. In this great war the club is doing a great service, all without fanfar trumpets or blowing of bugles. It has undertaken a great deal of work which should have come under the province of the national A. A. U., and is doing a fine job. Some clubs have seen fit to dodge the war time issue and go into hibernation, if not somnolence, for all time. The New York A. C. has faced the task fairly and squarely and will come out of this war bigger, better and more famous than ever before.

Lamentable Chaos in the Football Situation.

The football season is scheduled to be opened on Saturday, but as yet everything is chaos and few colleges know where their rivals stand. Few know where they themselves stand. Some big colleges are setting a bad example in rushing into a fever of cancellation and "passing the buck" to the officers sent by the War Department. So far the vast majority of these officers, who already are on the ground, have shown no Binsen defeated Walter Touseaint, 6—1. majority of these officers, who already at the feet of the feet football and other sports. To those colleges which are cancelling dates let it be said that 'tis easy to cancel but hard to retract. Before long they will be trying their hardest to get their lost games back, but in most cases these dates will be filled with other colleges or service teams.

West Point is moving ahead on a normal basis and the football squad said to be one of the best in years. The cancellation by Bowdoin has been discounted by the arrangement of a game with the eleven from Mitchel Field, at Mineola, L. I. The fliers may be shy of practice, but they probably will make the Cadets step some. Cancellations by other small colleges will not hamper the Army programme, which may be made even more interesting by the addition of games with Syracuse, Rutgers and W. and J.

MARION KIRKE WINS TROT AT PARKWAY

Nassau Champion Takes Opening Event at Red Cross Meet in Straight Heats.

Marion Kirke, the champion of the Nassau Driving Club, owned by Bob Da-vis, the veteran horseman, lived up to ex-pectations at the opening of the Red Cross meeting held at the Parkway Driving Club track under the auspices of the Nassau Driving Club yesterday afternoon. The mare won the 2:16 frotting event handily from Kinney Mc-Gregor and Pearl Guy, two of the best that have been raced this year on the short ship line. Davis had the third portion at the start, but soon was at the pole, which he never lost in the race. Three home horses faced Charley May-berry of Goshen in the 2:18 pace only to see the bay mare Deldie win by five lengths in the three heats. Jay Potter was second and The Ranger a close third. The Goshen entry reeled off the first mile in 2:14%, the best of the

In the special pacing event Hal Direct, a chestnut gelding belonging to Mos Aronson of the Harlem Speedway, was an easy winner. He won in straight heats over Copake and Baron Saturn El Clinta, a big chestnut, won the trot or a set of blankets. He beat Alice Peter by a scant margin in all three heats. Bellfair, which was the favorite made a mistake in all heats and was was a poor last. The summaries: 2:16 TROTTING CLASS: PURSE $100
